Hazardous Weather

Tornado Watch in Effect

Valid through 1 pm CDT This Afternoon

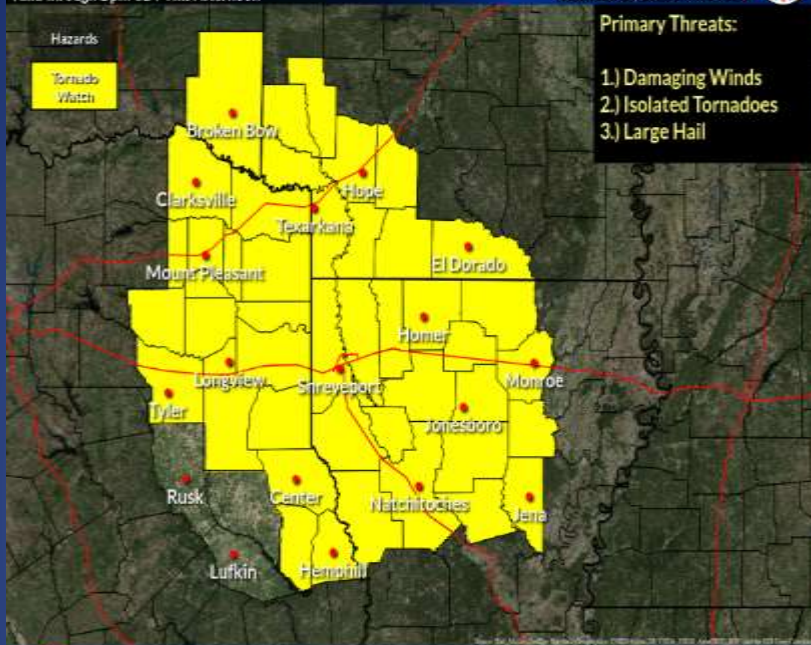

Weather Forecast Office
Shreveport, LA

Issued Mar 30, 2022 5:44 AM CDT

Primary Threats:

- 1.) Damaging Winds
- 2.) Isolated Tornadoes
- 3.) Large Hail

A Tornado Watch is in effect until 1 PM this afternoon for all of the region but the southwest sections of Deep East Texas. Damaging winds, isolated tornadoes, and large hail will be possible from the stronger storms.

Precipitation Chances Today

Valid Wed 7:00AM through Wed 7:00PM CDT

Weather Forecast Office
Shreveport, LA

Issued Mar 30, 2022 3:54 AM CDT

Showers and thunderstorms will become widespread today. Some of these storms could be severe.

Hazardous Weather

Red Flag Warning This Afternoon

Critical fire weather conditions could lead to wildfire development

Weather Forecast Office
Houston/Galveston TX
Issued Mar 30, 2022 4:18 AM CDT

A Red Flag Warning is in effect today from 1 PM to 7 PM. Conditions are expected to become supportive for wildfire development, especially in and around the Jackson-Maragorda-Wharton county area. Any fires that do develop will likely spread rapidly.

Severe Weather Outlook - Moderate

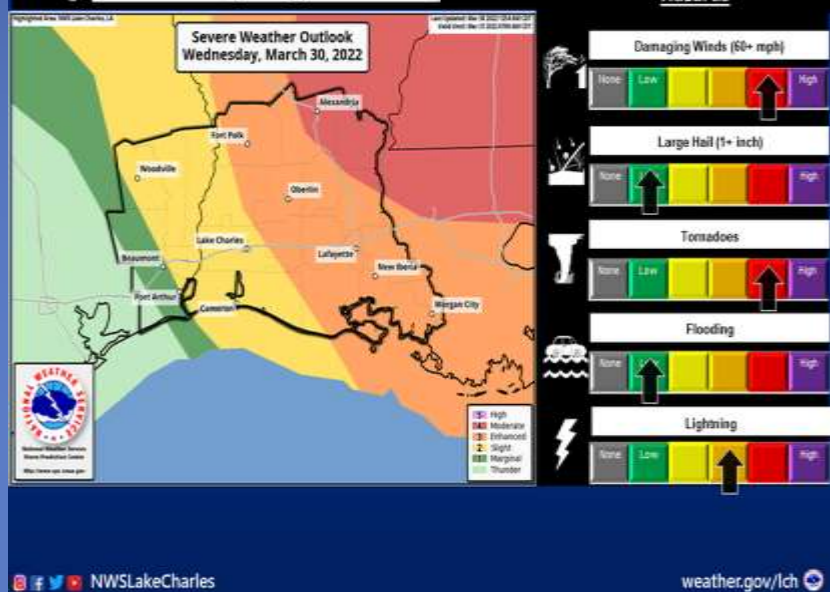

Storm Prediction Center Day 1 Outlook

Weather Forecast Office
Lake Charles, LA
Issued March 30, 2022 6:38 AM CDT

Potential Risk Level : 4 out of 5

Timing : Late this morning through this afternoon

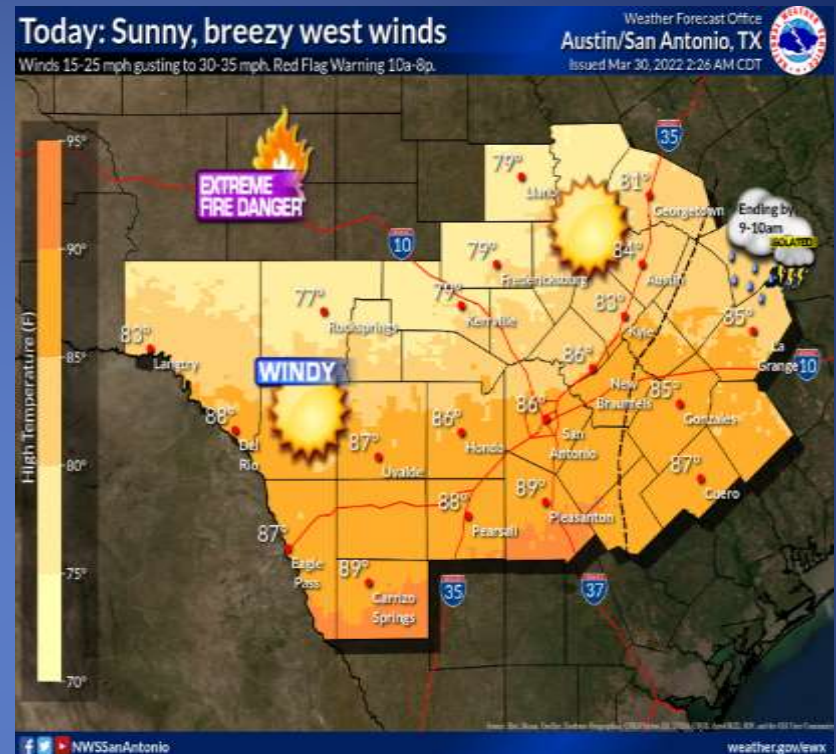

A squall line of strong to severe thunderstorms will move through the area today. Very strong, damaging winds and some tornadoes will be possible with stronger storms within the line. A few strong tornadoes (EF-2 or stronger) will be possible. As for timing, the line will develop to our west early Wednesday morning, arriving in southeast TX by mid morning, then shifting eastward into Louisiana through the afternoon. Once the line passes through the area, the severe threat will come to an end, with drier weather expected to move into the region.

Hazardous Weather

A Red Flag Warning is in effect from 10 AM through 8 PM Wednesday for all of South Central Texas. Dry to critically dry fuels in combination with humidities in the teens and 20s and northwesterly winds of 15 to 25 mph with gusts to 35 mph are expected. Do your part to prevent the ignition and spread of wildfires!

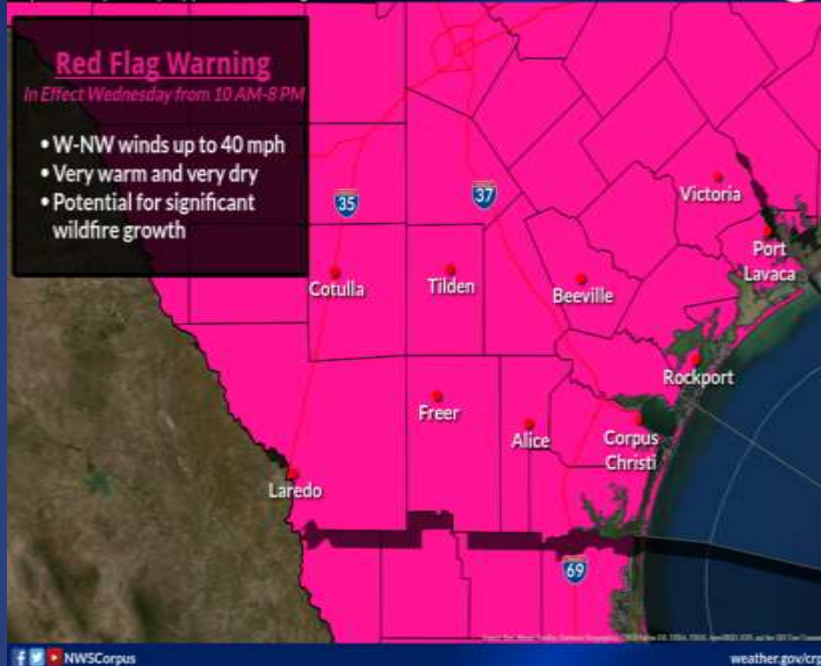

Lingering showers and maybe a few rumbles of thunder will move out of the area by mid-morning. Sunny skies and breezy to windy conditions are expected today, especially along and west of US-281. Extreme fire danger is anticipated once again.

Hazardous Weather

Critical Fire Conditions Today

Any fires can spread rapidly | Outdoor burning is not recommended

Weather Forecast Office
Corpus Christi, TX
Issued Mar 30, 2022 4:18 AM CDT

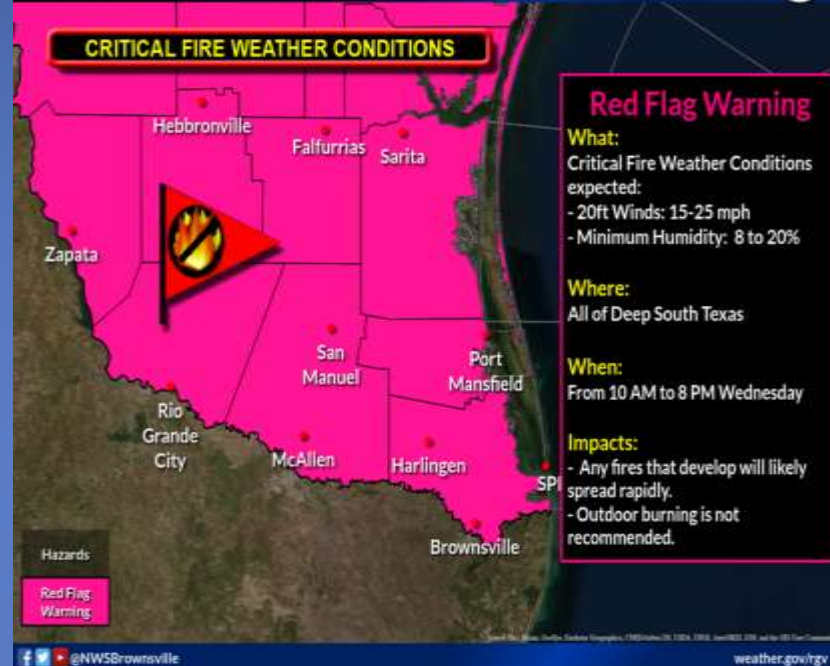

Strong west-northwest winds will combine with very warm and extremely dry air to produce a dangerous setup for wildfires today. A Red Flag Warning is in effect for all of South Texas including the barrier islands. Be fire aware and avoid all outdoor activities that involve sparks or open flames.

Red Flag Warning -Wednesday

Critical Fire Weather Conditions This Afternoon

Weather Forecast Office
Brownsville/RGV, TX
Issued Mar 30, 2022 4:02 AM CDT

A Red Flag Warning is in effect for all of Deep South Texas from 10 AM until 8 PM Wednesday due to very dry air, breezy northwest winds and very dry fuels. Any fires that develop will likely spread rapidly and outdoor burning should be avoided.

Hazardous Weather

A Pacific cold front swings through today and will lead to a mostly sunny afternoon with temperatures well into the 90s. The very dry air and northwesterly flow will create critical fire weather conditions, so avoid outdoor burning. Hazardous marine conditions continue on the Gulf waters most of the day.

Near critical to critical fire weather conditions will exist late this morning through this evening for areas along and south of the Trans Pecos. A Red Flag Warning is in effect.
